SATURDAY, FEBRUARY 26 1737.

N°. 522.

Yeſterday arrived the Mails due from Holland, France and Flanders, with the following ſerious Placaert, publiſhed by the States General, for a ſolemn Day of Thankſgiving, Faſting and Prayer.

'WHEREAS our dear Country, which, from a ſmall Beginning, is become a very conſiderable State, has hitherto preſerved the ineſtimable Bleſſings of Liberty and the true Religion; whereas the Peace it has enjoyed for a long Time, has been continued the laſt Year; and whereas the publick Tranquility, which has been diſturbed by a War fatal in ſeveral Parts of Chriſtendom, ſeems more and more re-eſtabliſhed and confirmed. We are obliged to acknowledge, that we can only aſcribe theſe Benefits, and many others, with which we have been inrich'd, to the mere Grace and free Clemency of the Almighty, who does not ceaſe to grant his Protection to this State, notwithſtanding the Sins and Iniquities of this Country, and notwithſtanding the ſo little Appearance of Amendment and Converſion, as makes it but too juſtly apprehended, that the incomprehenſible long Suffering and Patience of the Almighty, will not endure much longer, and that his juſt Vengeance will fall upon this Country, of which the Scourges and Calamities with which it has been afflicted in divers Reſpects, even in the midſt of Peace, may be looked upon as the Forerunners; ſo that by the Decay of its Navigation, and the Diminution alſo of its Strength, the State, after ſo many ſevere Wars which it has been obliged to maintain for its juſt Defence, is hardly able to recover Breath.

'Therefore the States General of the united Provinces, in conſideration of the Premiſes, and with a View to the preſent Circumſtances of the Times, and State of Affairs, have thought it fitting, that we ſhould addreſs ourſelves to the Almighty, to acknowledge his Goodneſs, to implore his Favour and Bleſſing, and to pray him that he wou'd be pleaſed to continue his Aſſiſtance for our Preſervation and our Safety; and for this End, they have, with our Conſent, appointed the 20th of March next, (N. S.) for a ſolemn Day of Thankſgiving, Faſting and Prayer, to be celebrated in all the united Provinces, confederated Countries and Towns, in order to humble ourſelves upon that Day, in a ſolemn Manner before God the Diſpenſer of all Bleſſings, and with all the Inhabitants of this Country, to praiſe and thank him, with all our Hearts, for the Favours, which, thro' his mere Grace and Goodneſs, he has granted hitherto in ſuch Abundance to our dear Country, that by his divine Power and Aſſiſtance, the State has been preſerved, and has enjoyed a happy Peace, and a longer one, than it had ever before enjoyed; in hopes, that the Flame of the War, which was kindled in other Parts, and which actually approach'd our Frontiers, being extinguiſh'd, the general Peace and Tranquility will be eſtabliſhed among the Chriſtian Powers; and to humble ourſelves alſo before God, by a ſincere Confeſſion of all the Sins and Iniquities of the Country, which increaſe every Day; to beſeech the Lord, whoſe long Sufferance and Beneficence, are infinite towards all who believe and truſt in him, and to pray to him earneſtly, and from the Bottom of our Hearts, to grant us the Pardon of all our Sins, and the Continuance of his Protection of our dear Country; to the End, that by his Divine and Almighty Protection, it may continue to enjoy Peace, and have the Happineſs of preſerving its Liberty and Religion; and finally, to implore the Mercy of God, that he would be pleaſed to avert from our dear Country, the Scourges and Chaſtiſements it has deſerved, to eſtabliſh, by his Favour, the general Peace and Tranquility, to take all the Proteſtant Churches into his Protection, and to deliver all thoſe that profeſs the true Chriſtian Religion, from all Oppreſſion and Perſecution: And all for the Exaltation of our Lord's moſt holy Name, for the Propagation and Increaſe of the true reformed Religion, for the Preſervation of our dear Liberty, and for the Salvation of our Souls, &c.'

Letters from Bruſſels ſay, they have Advice from Vienna, that the Duke of Lorain is ſpeedily to be declared Governor General of the Auſtrian Netherlands, in the room of the Archdutcheſs, who is to be Governeſs of Tirol.

They write alſo from Vienna, that according to their laſt Letters from Conſtantinople, the Ottoman Porte is ſo well inclined to a Peace, that they have actually conſented to yield Aſoph to the Czarina, and to grant her other advantagious Terms: And that the Emperor's Plenipotentiary Dahlman, writes Word, that the Grand Vizier ſaid to him, that he did not doubt of a Peace between the Turks and Ruſſians, provided the latter made ſome few Conceſſions; and that therefore he long'd to hear, that the Czarina had nominated her Plenipotentiaries to repair to the Place appointed by the Grand Signior for the Congreſs. They add, that 12,000 Turks who were advanced to the Frontiers of Boſnia are retired.

Letters from Petersburg ſay, that on the Czarina's Birth-day, which was celebrated there with very great Splendor on the 28th of January, O. S. her Majeſty drank a Bumper of Wine to the Emperor's Miniſter, which was, Proſperity to the Confederates againſt the Turks in caſe of a Rupture, and to the good Succeſs of the Negotiations that were on Foot to prevent it.

The Grand Vizier has at length returned an Anſwer to Count Konigſegg's Letter, but in a Stile very different from the Count's Letter, in which he only made Uſe of ſolid Arguments, to convince the Porte of the Wrong they have done to Ruſſia, and modeſtly ſhewed the Neceſſity that the Emperor wou'd be under to aſſiſt that Power, unleſs the Grand Signior prevented the War by an Accommodation; but the Grand Vizier's Anſwer, is haughty and inſolent to the laſt Degree, as the Reader may judge by the following Extract from one Part of it.

'Tis in Vain, ſays the Grand Vizier, for the Emperor to threaten to make an Alliance with Ruſſia, in order to go to War with the Sublime Porte. He ought to know, that according to the Treaty of Paſſarowitz, 'tis not in his Power to act as he pleaſes; tho' 'tis of very little Importance to the Muſſulmen, whether the Emperor is their Friend or their Enemy. The Sublime Porte has taken all the neceſſary Meaſures to preſerve its Glory, and to make Head againſt the Enemies of the Turkiſh Empire. They enter'd into the War in full Confidence of Succeſs, which they have the more Reaſon to promiſe themſelves, for that they have not given the Emperor Cauſe to commence Hoſtilities againſt the Turks, becauſe they have not violated the Treaties made with them; which, upon the contrary, the Chriſtians have done upon ſundry Occaſions, and on the moſt frivilous Pretences: As to Aſoph, which the Ruſſians unjuſtly keep in their Hands, the Fate of Arms will ſoon decide, whether they or the Muſſelmen have a Right to the Poſſeſſion of that Place; for the Sublime Porte will never be ſo tame as to conſent to the ſurrender of it; much leſs will they ever reſolve to beg Peace of Ruſſia, &c.

The outragious Stile of this Letter, is not at all ſurpriſing to the Court of Vienna, who were before convinced, by the Grand Vizier's Letter to the Count d'Oſterman, that the Miniſters of the Porte, are ignorant of the Rules of Decency and Decorum eſtabliſhed among Sovereigns; but what is moſt remarkable is, that at the very Time the Porte talk in ſuch an extraordinary Strain, they are nominating Plenipotentiaries to treat of a Peace.

The Senate of Petersburg having, in their Examination of the Articles of Impeachment againſt the Galliczin Family, found that Prince Demetrius was the greateſt Criminal, paſſed Sentence of Death upon him; but the Czarina, in conſideration of his great Age, has commuted it to perpetual Impriſonment. — They give out there, that the Perſian Ambaſſador has received Orders from his Maſter Kouli Kan, to declare to the Ruſſian Court, that the ſaid Prince will not ratify ſeveral Articles of the Treaty which his Ambaſſador ſign'd at Conſtantinople.

There's a very ſingular Piece of News in the Letters from Conſtantinople, viz. That the Janizaries knowing how much they ſhall be wanted, in caſe of a War with the Empire, have demanded Leave to drink Wine, that they may the better ſupport the Fatigues of the Campaign; and that the Muſti has actually held ſeveral Aſſemblies with the chief Turkiſh Doctors, to conſider whether ſuch a Contravention to the Law of Mahomet, may be permitted without Sin.

They write from Cadiz, that the Galleons bound for New Spain, were no ſooner out at Sea, but a Storm aroſe, in which one of 'em was ſunk, with a very rich Cargo, but the Mariners, with much ado, eſcap'd to Shore. There were 4 others in Company, which were diſperſed and drove, as 'tis ſuppoſed, towards Gibraltar or Malaga.

An Expreſs arrived at Madrid on the 25th of January O. S. from the Portugueſe Miniſter at the French Court, who after delivering certain Diſpatches to the Miniſters of France, England and Holland, relating to the Concluſion of the Accommodation, ſet out for Lisbon. This is the firſt Expreſs that has gone through Spain ſince the Rupture between the Two Crowns; which was the Reaſon that all the Couriers bound to and from Portugal, uſed to go by Sea.—Conferences are ſtill held at the Spaniſh Court, about the Ships taken in the Weſt Indies by the Spaniſh Garda Coſtas; for the Juſtification of which Captures, the King has cauſed a Liſt to be made of the of Number Ships employ'd as Interlopers, to carry on a Contraband Trade in thoſe Seas. To this Liſt are added, the Names of thoſe Ships, and of their Captains, with the Particulars of their Lading.

They write from Paris, that the Diſgrace of M. Chauvelin, has given a Handle to an infinite Number of idle Reports. 'Tis certain that he is not under a Guard at his Seat at Grosbois, the Muſqueteers who attended him being returned to Verſailles; ſo that he is intirely at Liberty, and receives Viſits from whomſoever he pleaſes. On the Day that he went to Grosbois, there was a great Levee at the Cardinal Fleury's, when his Eminency aſſur'd the Foreign Miniſters, that this Alteration would be no Hindrance to the Execution of the Meaſures which the King had taken for reſtoring the general Tranquility, and deſired them to inform their Principals of it. He addreſſed himſelf in particular to the Ambaſſadors of England and Holland, and told them that he therefore hoped, that the Maritime Powers would continue to be aſſured of his Friendſhip, and of his Deſire to be preſerved in Theirs. The Foreign Miniſters have been to compliment M. Dagueſſeau, on his having the New Office of Keeper of the Seals: On the 11th Inſtant, the Cardinal preſented the new Secretary, M. Amelot, to the King, who received him very graciouſly, as he was alſo by the Queen, the Dauphin, and the Princeſſes; and when he was thereupon complimented by the Foreign Miniſters, he declared his Joy, that he came to the Office at a Time of Peace, when he ſhould have nothing to take up his Thoughts, but the Eſtabliſhment of the Peace of Europe. The Choice of this Miniſter is generally approved by the French, he having been imploy'd at Rome and other Places, in important Commiſſions with ſuch Succeſs, as demonſtrated his Abilities.

M. Fenelon, the French Ambaſſador at the Hague, is ſet out for Paris, having left the Care of his Majeſty's Affairs in Holland to the Abbe de la Ville, Secretary of the Embaſſy.

LONDON.

They write from Nottinghamſhire, that a violent Storm happen'd laſt Thurſday ſe'nnight at Stainton, when a Woman going to fetch two Children ſhe had in a Barn, it was blown down upon her and killed her on the Spot; but the two Children were ſaved, tho' very much bruiſed.

Laſt Night the Corpſe of —— Dyer, Eſq; was carried from his late Dwelling Houſe at Chelſea, and interred in great funeral Solemnity in a Vault in Aldermanbury Church.

Yeſterday John Neale, Eſq; took the Oaths and his Seat in the Houſe of Commons, as Member for Coventry, in the room of Sir Adolphus Oughton, Bart. deceaſed.

The ſame Day the Right Honourable the Earl of Berkeley took the Oaths, and his Seat in the Houſe of Peers, in the room of his Father, deceaſed.

The Honourable Mr. Cornwallis, Brother to the Right Hon. the Lord Cornwallis, a Student at Cambridge, and who has been dangerouſly ill for ſome time paſt, is on the mending Hand.

Yeſterday was tried at Guildhall before Mr. Juſtice Probyn, by a ſpecial Jury of Merchants, a Cauſe againſt William Martin, Joſeph Lambeth, and Benjamin Oſgood, three Officers in the Artillery Company, on an Information for aſſaulting, beating and wounding a Coachman and two Coach Horſes belonging to Mr. John Caſwall, Banker in Lombard-ſtreet, the 29th of June laſt, as he was driving Mr. Caſwall's Chaiſe along Biſhopſgate-ſtreet; and after a full Hearing of the Matter, the Jury found them all Guilty; which, 'tis hop'd, will be a Warning to theſe military Gentlemen, to behave themſelves with more Caution for the future, having hitherto, on many Occaſions, been apt to preſume too much upon the Authority they apprehended themſelves veſted with.

The ſame Day the Seſſions of Admiralty ended at the Old Baily, when 3 Priſoners were tried and found Guilty, viz. Nicholas Williams, the Mate, and Edward Johnſon, who were convicted on Thurſday laſt for the Murder of Benjamin Hawes, Maſter of the Dove Brigantine, and Lawrence Sennett, for Piratically revolting and running away with the ſaid Brigantine, but acquitted of the Murder; after their Trials were over, the Court proceeded to Judgment on all Four, viz. Richard Coyle, for the Murder of Benjamin Hartley, Maſter of the St. John Pink, and the ſaid Williams, Johnſon and Sennett.

Yeſterday a Man was committed to the Gatehouſe, Weſtminſter, by Juſtice Manley, for Shoplifting.
